Greetings Mr. Wade Norris,

As you may recall, I am a novice land and timber owner in East Tennessee. There have been times when I needed some great advice from a very knowledgeable resource in the timber and logging industry before making some key decisions. As you may recall, I have reached out to you on at least three occasions and during each conversation you were patient, forthcoming with your knowledge. As such, it was, and remains apparent that you truly want to help others need. As to share with any potential reader, with each interaction there has been no mention of financial compensation or gain on your part. What you've graciously shared has been straight from the heart. In a world where self comes first often, you've shown that you are a great man, great businessman for our industry.

Anyone getting to work with you in any capacity will quickly learn that you're very wise and well educated in the logging and timber industry.

Thanks again, for sharing your knowledge.
